Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Congratulations!!!

It was a great privilege and pleasure to see and listen to your guest appearance on the Alan Burke show. For the first time since the assassination of President Kennedy I had the feeling I was hearing some of the truth about what really occurred.

Your knowledge of facts and material as well as names, dates, places, et cextera was simply overwhelming. You proved indeed that YOU knew what you were talking about and that was more than could be said for the so-called lawyers and critics of your book who had the nerve to appear on television without even reading the material they were trying to discuss and tear down.

I must read your book - please forward a copy as soon as possible and if the check covers it, please use airmail or first class.

I admire you for your efforts and am sure I will wish to write you again after reading WHITEWASH!
